

THE ARSENIO BUCK SHOW PRESENTS

TOEIC Coaching

Guys, welcome back to another TOEIC language building podcast/YouTube and I'm proud to be bringing you today a very informative blog on adjectives and adverbs. There are some differences between the two, so I want to break them down as easy (not easily) as possible.

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching Episode 2

Language building: adjective and adverb endings

You basically have "ly" versus everything else in these sentences. Let's check them out.
We chose this condominium because the rooms are fully furnished and _____ (comfortable/comfortably).
We have _____ with the pipes below our home. (serious/seriously)
You are expected to listen _____ while listening for the exact words in order to become a great transcriber.
(attentive/attentively)
Our sales have been _____ good in the last three months. (consistent/consistently)
The response to the new layout of the office has been _____. (wonderful/wonderfully)
The contract _____ stated that you could be replaced if you don't meet our demands. (specific/specifically)

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching Episode 2

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching

Adjectives - write down five in each category down below.

- able -
- ous -
- ive -
- ent -
- ful -
- ic -

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching Episode 2

Adverbs
-ly -

Now make sentences with two of the words from each category and post them on my Facebook wall.

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching Episode 2

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Episode 2

Notes

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching Episode 2

Notes

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching Episode 2

Notes

Arsenio's ESL - TOEIC Coaching Episode 2

Notes